Little guide. Big town.

DISTRICT new!

An instant hit. Bacar meets Salt House with traces of LuLu (in its prime)—and maybe a little John Colins, for industry insiders. Big venue, big vino menu, and just the right food and feel for the location. Behind the bar, Roman-born sommelier Caterina can predict and satisfy your tastes better than Robert Mondavi himself. The menu, a real mix: oysters on the half shell, tuna tartare, lamb chops, prosciutto-wrapped goat's cheese and more.
